

Unit 8: Talking About the Past (Parler du Passé)

You've learned to talk about what's happening now and what's going to happen soon. But what about everything that's already happened? This unit introduces the most common way to talk about the past in French: the Passé Composé!

Lesson 22: The Passé Composé with avoir

Thoughts: The Passé Composé (pah-SAY kohm-POH-zay) is how French speakers talk about completed actions in the past (like "I ate," "She went," "They finished"). It's a two-part verb tense, which is different from how we form the past in English or Czech.

Casual Introduction: In English, we just add "-ed" to many verbs (walked, talked). In Czech, you change the verb ending (dělal, šel). In French, for the Passé Composé, you need two words for most verbs: a helper verb (called an auxiliary verb) and the past participle of your main verb. For most verbs, the helper verb is AVOIR (to have).

Grammar Spotlight: Forming the Passé Composé with AVOIR

The formula for the Passé Composé with avoir is:

Conjugated AVOIR (in present tense) + Past Participle of the main verb

Let's break it down:

1. The Auxiliary Verb AVOIR: You already know how to conjugate avoir in the present tense from Unit 3.

This is the first part of your Passé Composé verb!

- J'ai (I have)
- Tu as (You have)
- Il/Elle/On a (He/She/One has)
- Nous avons (We have)
- Vous avez (You have)
- Ils/Elles ont (They have)

2. The Past Participle (Participe Passé): This is the "action" part of your verb. For regular verbs, they are formed very predictably:

- For -ER verbs (like parler - to speak): Drop the -er and add -é.
 - parler -> parlé (par-LAY)
 - manger -> mangé (mahn-ZHAY)
 - travailler -> travaillé (trah-vai-YAY)
- For -IR verbs (like finir - to finish): Drop the -ir and add -i.
 - finir -> fini (fee-NEE)
 - choisir -> choisi (shwah-ZEE)

- réussir -> réussi (ray-oo-SEE)
- For -RE verbs (like vendre - to sell): Drop the -re and add -u.
 - vendre -> vendu (vahn-DOO)
 - attendre -> attendu (ah-tahn-DOO)
 - répondre -> répondu (ray-pohn-DOO)

Combining AVOIR and the Past Participle

Let's see it in action:

Subject	AVOIR	Past Participle of parler	Passé Composé	English Translation
Je	ai	parlé	J'ai parlé.	I spoke / I have spoken.
Tu	as	parlé	Tu as parlé.	You spoke / You have spoken.
Il/Elle/On	a	parlé	Il a parlé.	He spoke / He has spoken.
Nous	avons	parlé	Nous avons parlé.	We spoke / We have spoken.
Vous	avez	parlé	Vous avez parlé.	You spoke / You have spoken.
Ils/Elles	ont	parlé	Ils ont parlé.	They spoke / They have spoken.

Important Note: When using avoir as the auxiliary verb, the past participle DOES NOT AGREE in gender or number with the subject. It stays in its basic form (e.g., parlé is always parlé).

Negation in the Passé Composé

To make a Passé Composé sentence negative, the ne...pas wraps around the auxiliary verb (avoir).

- Positive: J'ai mangé. (I ate.)
- Negative: Je n'ai pas mangé. (I didn't eat.)
- Positive: Nous avons fini. (We finished.)
- Negative: Nous n'avons pas fini. (We didn't finish.)

Common Time Expressions for the Past

- hier (yair) - yesterday
- hier soir (yair swar) - last night / yesterday evening
- la semaine dernière (lah suh-MEN dehr-NYEHR) - last week
- le mois dernier (luh mwah dehr-NYEHR) - last month
- l'année dernière (lah-NAY dehr-NYEHR) - last year

Example Sentences:

- J'ai regardé la télé hier soir. (I watched TV last night.)
- Tu as étudié hier ? (Did you study yesterday?)
- Elle a vendu sa maison. (She sold her house.)
- Nous avons choisi un film. (We chose a film.)
- Vous avez attendu longtemps ? (Did you wait long?)

- Ils n'ont pas fini le travail. (They didn't finish the work.)

Vocabulary Box:

French Verb (Infinitive)	Past Participle	English Translation

Exercises/Quiz:

1. Form the past participle for these regular verbs:

- a) écouter (to listen) -> __
- b) grandir (to grow) -> __
- c) perdre (to lose) -> __

2. Conjugate the verb in Passé Composé with avoir:

- a) Je (travailler) hier.
- b) Nous (manger) au restaurant.
- c) Elle (finir) ses devoirs (homework).
- d) Ils (vendre) leur voiture.

3. Make these sentences negative:

- a) Tu as regardé le film.
- b) Vous avez répondu à la question.

Solutions:

1. a) écouté, b) grandi, c) perdu
2. a) J'ai travaillé hier. b) Nous avons mangé au restaurant. c) Elle a fini ses devoirs. d) Ils ont vendu leur voiture.
3. a) Tu n'as pas regardé le film. b) Vous n'avez pas répondu à la question.

Lesson 23: The Passé Composé with être

Thoughts: While most verbs use avoir in the Passé Composé, a special group of verbs (mostly about movement and changes of state) uses être (to be) as their auxiliary verb. And there's an important extra rule with être!

Casual Introduction: Imagine the Passé Composé as a fancy party. Most verbs arrive with their friend avoir. But a special, exclusive club of verbs arrives with their friend être. And when you're with être, you have to match outfits – the past participle has to agree with the subject, just like adjectives agree with nouns!

Grammar Spotlight: Forming the Passé Composé with ÉTRE

The formula for the Passé Composé with être is:

Conjugated ÉTRE (in present tense) + Past Participle of the main verb

1. The Auxiliary Verb ÉTRE: You already know how to conjugate être in the present tense from Unit 2.

- Je suis (I am)
- Tu es (You are)
- Il/Elle/On est (He/She/One is)
- Nous sommes (We are)
- Vous êtes (You are)
- Ils/Elles sont (They are)

2. The Special Group of Verbs (The "ÊTRE House" Verbs): These verbs (and their compounds like revenir from venir) almost exclusively describe movement or a change of state. A common mnemonic to remember them is DR & MRS VANDERTRAMP (or just the first letter of each verb):

- Devenir (to become) -> devenu
- Revenir (to come back) -> revenu
- Monter (to go up, to climb) -> monté
- Rester (to stay) -> resté
- Sortir (to go out) -> sorti
- Venir (to come) -> venu
- Aller (to go) -> allé
- Naître (to be born) -> né
- Descendre (to go down, to descend) -> descendu
- Entrer (to enter) -> entré
- Rentrer (to return home) -> rentré
- Tomber (to fall) -> tombé
- Retourner (to return) -> retourné
- Arriver (to arrive) -> arrivé
- Mourir (to die) -> mort (irregular past participle!)
- Partir (to leave) -> parti

Note: Passer (to pass) uses être when it means "to pass by" (e.g., Il est passé devant la maison). Otherwise, it uses avoir (e.g., Il a passé un examen - he took an exam).

3. Past Participle Agreement with ÉTRE: This is the most important rule for être verbs! The past participle MUST AGREE in gender and number with the subject of the sentence.

- Masculine Singular: Past participle stays as is (e.g., allé)
 - Il est allé. (He went.)
- Feminine Singular: Add an -e to the past participle (e.g., allée)
 - Elle est allée. (She went.)
- Masculine Plural: Add an -s to the past participle (e.g., allés)
 - Ils sont allés. (They went - masculine group.)
- Feminine Plural: Add an -es to the past participle (e.g., allées)
 - Elles sont allées. (They went - feminine group.)

Let's see it in action with ALLER (to go):

Subject	ÊTRE	Past Participle of aller	Passé Composé	English Translation
Je (m.)	suis	allé	Je suis allé.	I went. (if speaker is male)
Je (f.)	suis	allée	Je suis allée.	I went. (if speaker is female)
Tu (m.)	es	allé	Tu es allé.	You went. (if listener is male)
Tu (f.)	es	allée	Tu es allée.	You went. (if listener is female)
Il	est	allé	Il est allé.	He went.
Elle	est	allée	Elle est allée.	She went.
On	est	allé	On est allé.	One went / We went (informal, if 'on' refers to male/mixed group)
On	est	allée	On est allée.	One went / We went (informal, if 'on' refers to female group)
Nous (m.pl)	sommes	allés	Nous sommes allés.	We went. (if group is male/mixed)
Nous (f.pl)	sommes	allées	Nous sommes allées.	We went. (if group is female)
Vous (m.pl)	êtes	allés	Vous êtes allés.	You went. (if group is male/mixed)
Vous (f.pl)	êtes	allées	Vous êtes allées.	You went. (if group is female)
Ils	sont	allés	Ils sont allés.	They went. (male/mixed group)
Elles	sont	allées	Elles sont allées.	They went. (female group)

Pronunciation Note: While the added -e or -s affects spelling for agreement, they are often silent in pronunciation. You'll primarily hear the difference when the feminine form adds a pronounced consonant (e.g., Il est parti vs. Elle est partie).

Negation in the Passé Composé with ÊTRE

Just like with avoir, the ne . . . pas wraps around the auxiliary verb (être).

- Positive: Je suis allé. (I went.)
- Negative: Je ne suis pas allé. (I didn't go.)
- Positive: Elles sont arrivées. (They arrived.)
- Negative: Elles ne sont pas arrivées. (They didn't arrive.)

Example Sentences:

- Il est arrivé hier soir. (He arrived last night.)
- Elle est partie ce matin. (She left this morning.)
- Nous sommes allés au cinéma. (We went to the cinema.)
- Vous êtes rentrés tard ? (Did you (all) return late?)
- Ils sont montés dans le train. (They went up into/boarded the train.)
- Elles ne sont pas sorties. (They didn't go out.)

Vocabulary Box: The Main ÊTRE Verbs (Past Participles)

venir	venu	to come
arriver	arrivé	to arrive

Key Takeaways for Unit 8: Talking About the Past

- Passé Composé Structure: This is the main past tense for completed actions. It has two parts:
 - Auxiliary Verb (either avoir or être conjugated in the present tense).
 - Past Participle of the main verb.
- Past Participle Formation (Regular Verbs):
 - -ER verbs -> -é (e.g., parler -> parlé)
 - -IR verbs -> -i (e.g., finir -> fini)
 - -RE verbs -> -u (e.g., vendre -> vendu)
- Passé Composé with AVOIR:
 - Most verbs use avoir.
 - The past participle does NOT agree with the subject.
 - Negation: ne + avoir + pas + past participle (e.g., Je n'ai pas mangé.)
- Passé Composé with ÊTRE:
 - A special group of verbs (mostly movement/change of state, like DR & MRS VANDERTRAMP verbs) use être.
 - The past participle MUST AGREE in gender and number with the subject (like an adjective).
 - Add -e for feminine singular.
 - Add -s for masculine plural.
 - Add -es for feminine plural.
 - Negation: ne + être + pas + past participle (e.g., Elle n'est pas allée.)

Mastering the Passé Composé is a huge step in French! It allows you to tell stories, share experiences, and truly communicate about your life. Keep practicing which auxiliary to use and how to form those past participles, especially the agreement with être!
